

I'm concerned about this bill stating hiring qualified interpreters over certified interpreters. Also there is a shortage of certified interpreters not only in Florida but in the US. I believe this new requirements to answer calls in 10 seconds is not only unreasonable but impossible.